ARGENTINA

The Argentinian Football Association was founded in 1893 and became part of the International Federation in 1912. It has its head office in the Calle de Viamonte in Buenos Aires the capital of Argentina.

The first teams to be founded were Alumni and Sportivo Barracas and these were followed by the famous teams of the 1930s Boca, River, Gimnasia y Esgrima, Racing Independiente. The most popular at the present time being River Plate, Talleres, Boca Juniors, Racing, San Lorenzo and Independiente. Argentina are the present holders of the World Cup having won it in the 1978 championship.
